

COUNTRY CLUB

LIMA HOTEL

COUNTRY CLUB LIMA HOTEL RECOGNIZED WITH
CONDÉ NAST TRAVELER'S 2019 READERS' CHOICE AWARD

"#5 Best Hotel in South America"

"#36 Best Hotels in the world"

(Lima, Peru) Oct. 7, 2019 – Condé Nast Traveler today announced the results of its 32nd annual Readers' Choice Awards with Country Club Lima Hotel recognized as the #5 Best Hotel in South America.

"Being named #5 Best Hotel in South America is an honor the property carries with pride," said Eduardo Ibarra, General Manager of Country Club Lima Hotel. "We are in great company with our ranking and the entire staff at Country Club Lima Hotel would like to thank our loyal guests and the readers' of Condé Nast Traveler for the award."

More than 600,000 Condé Nast Traveler readers submitted a record-breaking number of responses rating their travel experiences to provide a full snapshot of where and how we travel today.

The history of Country Club Lima Hotel is linked intimately with the development and splendor of Lima, one of the most vibrant cities in South America. Situated in the prestigious San Isidro neighborhood of Lima, the hotel has been the preferred address of affluent residents and globetrotting travelers for nine decades.

The building that now houses Country Club Lima Hotel was built in 1927. In its early years, the Country Club was a popular polo and golf destination for British viceroys and aristocracy, including the former Duke of Windsor Edward VIII. It was also frequented by famed literaries, including Nobel Prize winners Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner and Peruvian writer Alfredo Bryce Echenique, as well as celebrities such as John Wayne, Nelson Rockefeller, Ava Gardner and more. In 1997 the building was purchased by new owners, who carried out extensive renovations to turn the Country Club into the five-star hotel it is today.

The Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards are the longest-running and most prestigious recognition of excellence in the travel industry and are commonly known as “the best of the best of travel.”

About Country Club Lima Hotel Located in one of the liveliest cities in Peru in the prestigious San Isidro neighborhood, Country Club Lima Hotel has been a longstanding favorite of international travelers and locals alike. It is one of the most exclusive hotels in Lima and renowned for its excellent service. The Grand Dame hotel was built in 1927 and boasts 83 guestrooms and suites decorated in a mix of classical and Peruvian artworks. Celebrated for its innovative style, creative flavors and sophisticated ambiance, the hotel underwent a 15-month room redesign led by designer Francisco López Bustos in 2017. The hotel boasts an impressive display of more than 300 pieces of art and colonial furniture on loan from the Pedro de Osma Museum, which can be seen in both the hotel's public spaces and in the guestrooms. The hotel's award-winning Perroquet Restaurant serves Peruvian classics with an international flair, and The English Bar is popular with visitors looking to try the famed Pisco Sour that has won the award for best Pisco Sour in Lima. For more information please visit www.countryclublimahotel.com